Report on Ganesh Chaturthi Celebration

Ganesh Chaturthi is an important Hindu festival celebrated all over India. It is a ten-day festival, beginning on the fourth day of the Hindu month of Bhadra and ending on the fourteenth day of the same month.

This year, the college celebrated Ganesh Chaturthi on the 13th of September. The celebrations began with the setting up of an idol of Lord Ganesha in the college campus. The idol was beautifully decorated with flowers and garlands. It was then placed on a raised platform and a pooja was conducted.

On the day of the festival, the college organised a cultural event where students performed various traditional dance and songs to celebrate the festival. Many of the students had prepared their own skits, which they performed in front of the audience. Along with this, some of the students also wrote and recited poems on the theme of Ganesh Chaturthi.

The college also organised a number of competitions, such as drawing and painting competitions, rangoli competitions, and writing competitions. The winners of the competitions were awarded prizes.
