Report on Lahariya Festival Celebration

The Lahariya Festival was celebrated at our college with great enthusiasm and gaiety. The fest was organized by the college's Cultural Committee and it was attended by students and faculty members from all departments.

The event began with a procession of students dressed in traditional Lahariya attire. They made their way through the college grounds, singing and dancing. The procession was followed by a lecture by a guest speaker who spoke about the importance of this festival and its cultural significance.

The highlight of the event was a fashion show in which the students showcased their traditional Lahariya attire. The show was well-received by the audience and the participants were lauded for their creative costumes.

Overall, the Lahariya Festival was a resounding success and it was enjoyed by all.

Report on Navratra Mahotsav (Dandiya & Bhajan Sandhya)

Navratri is a very important festival celebrated in India, especially in the western part of the country. It is celebrated to mark the victory of good over evil and to honor the divine mother, Goddess Durga.

Navratri Mahotsav is a nine-day festival celebrated with great enthusiasm and devotion in India. During this festival, people perform various activities, such as religious rituals, puja, fasting, and praying to Goddess Durga.

Bhajan Sandhya is one of the most popular activities organized during Navratri. It is a musical gathering where devotees come together to sing devotional songs and hymns dedicated to Goddess Durga. During the event, devotees offer flowers and other items as a mark of respect and devotion.

The main objective of organizing Navratri Mahotsav and Bhajan Sandhya is to create a spiritual atmosphere where devotees can come together to offer their prayers and seek the blessings of Goddess Durga. The event also serves as a platform to celebrate the spirit of unity and shared values among the people.

Report on English Speaking Course

Rajasthan Shikshak Prashikshan Vidyapeeth, Shahpura Bagh organised English Speaking Certification Course from 23rd January to 22nd February 2020. The program was started by lighting the lamp in front of Saraswati Maa.

At the beginning of the program, Dr. Manoj Kumar Sharma, Principal of the College welcomed everyone and explained the reason for the English speaking course. Coordinator Dr. Manisha Sharma explained the need of the certification program as follows -

- To boost the morale of the students in English language and remove the fear of speaking.
- Being able to develop personality
- Promoting communication between students and faculty in English language.
- Understand the importance of English language in effective communication and communicate effectively in the English language

The aim of the workshop is to encourage students to learn and explore spoken English skills to enhance their communication skills. Secretary Dr. Rajkumar Joshi said that Campus placement is one of the biggest events in the life of every student. It is easy to see how important English is around the world. Many international businesses conduct meetings in English; Universities teach courses in English and, around the world, tourists and travelers use English as a common language.

Chief guest Dr. Kamla Vashishtha said that good English is not only classy but also a possibility to continue studying and specializing in the best universities of the world.

Education is very important to improve oneself but learning English also improves the quality of life. Students have access to jobs might not even consider, they can evaluate an international career and live in multiple countries with the ease of making a purchase or negotiating a house rent. The benefits that they bring to a person's life from knowledge of the English language are countless. It is important to understand that the English language is able to overcome many barriers, including cultural ones.

The sessions consist of both theory and practical in which the students are given topics and invited for desk discussions to inspire and encourage others. Students are also asked to participate in word quiz to enhance their English Vocabulary. Provided guidance on topics such as how to increase vocabulary in English language, how to find good literature to read, importance of English writing to learn about the language and motivate students to enhance their command over English and also to overcome stage fear.

Report on Basant Panchami Celebration

On the occasion of Basant Panchami, our college celebrated the festival with great enthusiasm and zeal. The celebration was organized in the college auditorium.

The celebration began with the Saraswati Vandana, a traditional prayer dedicated to Goddess Saraswati. This was followed by a dance performance by some of the college students. They performed traditional folk dances and paid tribute to the goddess.

The celebration also included a range of competitions such as rangoli making, Mehendi designing, poetry recitation, and kite flying. There were prizes for the winners of these competitions.

The college also organized a 'knowledge hunt'. Here, teams of students competed to answer questions related to the festival and its significance. The winners of the competition were awarded with certificates and prizes.

The celebration concluded with the distribution of prasad (sweets and fruits) among the students.

Overall, the celebration was a great success and everyone enjoyed it thoroughly.

Report on Holi Celebration

Holi is the festival of colors and joy and it is celebrated all over India. This year, our college celebrated Holi on March 6, 2020 with much enthusiasm and zeal. The college grounds were decorated with vibrant colors and flowers. The celebration started with the lighting of a traditional Holi bonfire.

Students from all departments and courses of the college participated in the celebration. Everyone was dressed in traditional attire. The college administration organized numerous activities for students such as rangoli competitions, dance performances, Holi songs, and much more. The most exciting part of the celebration was the drenching of colors. Everyone was drenched in colors and it was a sight to behold.

The college authorities arranged for food stalls with traditional Holi delicacies. Everyone enjoyed the delicious food and sweets. At the end of the day, the students gathered for the prize distribution ceremony. Prizes were given to the winners of the various competitions and activities that were organized.

The celebration was enjoyed by everyone and it was a memorable day for all. It was a great opportunity for the students to come together and celebrate the festival of colors.
