Report on Sanskrit Sambhashan Shivir

Rajasthan Shikshak Prashikshan Vidyapeeth organised one month Sanskrit Sambhashan Shivir in the college campus from 17th February to 16th March 2022. About 200 persons including students, teachers and people from almost every section of the college attended the classes, which were conducted for one hour every day.

The secretary of college delivered the keynote address. He said, "Sanskrit was the mother of all Indian languages and 80 per cent words of the Bengali and other languages originated from Sanskrit." He said if we want to know the real culture of the country, we must know Sanskrit.

Chief Guest said that Sanskrit means good samskar which is compulsory for every human being and it might be done through Sanskrit. If we want to imbibe full teachings of the Epic we will have to learn Sanskrit. Dr. Manisha Sharma said that once Sanskrit was the spoken language all over India. If we ignore the Sanskrit, we shall be out from our Indian history and the soul of India. In the camp, the students were taught according to the syllabus prepared for specially the Sanskrit Sambhashan in which Sanskrit grammar, pronunciation and writing of Sanskrit verses were kept along with other necessary topics.

Report on Online Sanskrit Sambhashan Shivir

The Sanskrit Sambhashan Shivir held annually at Rajasthan Shikshak Prashikshan Vidyapeeth, Jaipur was organized from 15th April 2021 and in the meantime the entire teaching-learning process was interrupted due to the sudden lockdown imposed under the Corona epidemic. Academic programs of lecturers as well as students were disrupted. The teaching-learning process should not be affected by the effect of the global epidemic, so the Sanskrit Sambhashan Shivir went smoothly through innovative online technology and regularly on a daily basis. The camp was conducted by Dr. Sanjay Goswami and Mr. Devendra Kumar Sharma. The opening ceremony began with a Sanskrit song (Manasa Sathanam Vadaniyam).

- The First Day had a general conversation.
- Second Day – Inflection knowledge,
- Third Day – Pronouns Knowledge,
- Fourth Day – Verbs Knowledge
- Fifth Day - Time Knowledge
- Sixth Day – Factor Knowledge
- Seventh Day – Suffix Knowledge
- Eighth Day – Adjective Knowledge
- Ninth Day – Word Knowledge
- Tenth Day - Sentence Usage Knowledge

The camp concluded on 27th April 2021.
